

Chaldean American Chamber of Commerce

everymembercounts

“Supporting chamber events has given us great exposure in the Chaldean business community, as well as the Chaldean community as a whole.”

– Amal Berry-Brown,
Comerica Bank

“The chamber has helped us improve relations with Detroit officials by reestablishing who we are.”

– Rick Farida,
Greenfield Market

strength in numbers

Chaldeans: Are a force in Michigan – 121,000 strong and growing Chaldeans: Are entrepreneurial – 61 percent own at least one business Chaldeans: Are financially savvy – median household income is $96,100 strength in community

The Chaldean Community Foundation funds a variety of charitable programs and provides reward money to apprehend violent criminals through the Waad Murad Advocacy Fund

Because of the support of our members, the foundation has donated more than $300,000 to good works

The Foundation also has a variety of programs providing support and services mainly to Iraqi refugees and has partnered with the Chaldean American Association of Health Professionals to administer Project Bismutha – a program offering health care for uninsured community members

strength in commitment
